Now in its Fourth Edition, the Getty-Dubay® Italic Handwriting Series is successfully used in public, charter, private and homeschools around the world.

Each workbook in the Series energizes the student's natural curiosity and thirst for learning. Its unique "Look, Plan, Practice" approach to self-evaluation enhances legibility while empowering students toward the goal of handwriting success.

The Series is a comprehensive program that contains everything you need to teach legible handwriting to students of all ages and skill levels, with helpful tips, illustrations and creative practice materials. All books are 8.5 inches x 11 inches.

The natural way to write!

Legible

No loops! Italic letterforms are clear and uncluttered.

Logical

Easy transition! Letters stay the same from printing to cursive.

Natural to Write

The elliptical shapes and strokes of italic conform to natural hand movements.

Easy to Teach

The Series provides a clear, concise, step-by-step approach with hands-on practice.

"Many parents have thanked me for helping their child develop this attractive, legible handwriting."

Vicki Swartz
National Teachers Hall of Fame

"I'm thrilled with the precision and easy-to-read style my five children have learned!"

Wendy Shaw
Homeschool parent/teacher

"I changed my handwriting to italic! I support the Getty-Dubay Italic Handwriting Series as a great way to teach children how to write."

Mike Mitchell
Elementary public school principal using an edged pen. The teaching method is hands-on — you will learn as you practice writing using models to trace and copy. The practice incorporates the history of writing. Each letter is presented in both monoline form for informal writing and an edged-pen form for an elegant hand. Four italic styles are shown: basic, formal, chancery and cursive. Includes a chapter on design principles.

Letter height 10, 7 and 4mm, 128 pages.

"Inga Dubay and Barbara Getty are truly artists and have designed each page of Italic Letters with great clarity, balance, precision and beauty."
